- It would be great if ACEND could prepare a video that I can share with this interested students that summarizes the pathways, including for international student.
  - Thank you for the proposal and believe it will be very helpful to programs. We will work on providing such a recording.
- I am concerned that an entrepreneur (All Access Dietetics) is working to developing a guide on the education pathways to draw students and educators to their website rather than ACEND resources.
  - Under antitrust laws, ACEND is not able to control business practices and prevent the benefits of competition and other businesses from making profit.
