

FNCE 2024 Roles, Responsibilities, and Benefits

Role Primary Responsibilities		Membership Requirements
Program Planner May also be Speaker or Moderator	 Completion and submission of online proposal prior to deadline Primary communication liaison between Speakers/Moderators and Academy staff Overall session management: scheduling planning calls with Speakers, submitting final slide decks, etc. 	Not required to be an Academy member
Moderator May also be Program Planner; cannot be Speaker	On-site session moderation, including speaker timing, maintaining presentation flow, and presenting audience questions to Speakers for Q&A period at end of session	Must be an Academy member by June 1, 2024 (review our eligibility requirements)
Speaker May also be Program Planner; cannot be Moderator	May also be Program Planner; requirements, qualification criteria

Benefits

Program Planner	Moderator	Speaker For sessions with 1-2 Speakers		Speaker/Panelist For sessions with 3 Speakers
Volunteer role; no associated benefits	Volunteer role; no associated benefits	Member Complimentary FNCE® registration ($395 value) and session recordings access for 12 months ($95 value and up to 50 CPEU) $500 stipend Approximately $1000 value + up to 50 CPE	Nonmember* Complimentary FNCE® day pass Round-trip coach flight, one night lodging, one day per diem (per city standard) $300 honorarium	Member Complimentary FNCE® registration ($395 value) and session recordings access for 12 months ($95 value and up to 50 CPEU) $350 stipend Approximately $800 value + up to 50 CPE	Nonmember* Complimentary FNCE® day pass Round-trip coach flight, one night lodging, one day per diem (per city standard) $250 honorarium

^{*}Nonmember refers to participants who are not eligible for Academy membership, not non-member RDNs/NDTRs. All RDN/NDTR participants must become Academy members prior to June 1, 2024.