The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) Presents:

Academy Member Interest Group (MIG) Panel Discussion: Strategies to Improve Diversity and Inclusion in Dietetics Education

May 17, 2022
11:00 am – 12:30 pm CT

Moderated by:

Crystal Wynn, PhD, MPH, RD
ACEND Board Member

ACEND continues its series of webinars to assist nutrition faculty in addressing diversity, equity, and inclusion in their programs. The panel discussion will include representation from the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Member Interest Groups. Panel members will be asked to respond to questions regarding their dietetic education experiences and provide strategies for improvement. All ACEND stakeholders (faculty, administrators, preceptors, students, interns, etc.) are invited to attend.

Requested for 1.5 CPE

Click here to register.

Dr. Crystal Wynn is currently an associate professor at Virginia State University in Petersburg, Virginia, where she serves as the Director of the Dietetic Internship Program and the Chair of the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences Department. She is a registered dietitian and has worked in behavioral health nutrition. Crystal has received a Bachelor of Science in Foods, Nutrition, and Dietetics from Delaware State University, a Master of Public Health in Nutrition from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and a Ph.D. in Public Health from Walden University. She currently serves as the Diversity Liaison for the Virginia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. She has been a lead program reviewer for the Accreditation Council on Education in Nutrition and Dietetics for the past six years. Most recently, she was elected to serve as the program representative elect for Dietetic Internship Programs for the ACEND board for the upcoming year. Crystal is married has two children.