

FNCE[®] and Your Organization

Empower your staff by sending them to FNCE[®]!

Almost half of FNCE[®] 2025 attendees received full or partial financial support from their employers. Companies recognize that FNCE[®] is the premier event for enhancing professional skills and demonstrating employee appreciation, according to recent Academy surveys.

FNCE[®] received an 8.3/10 satisfaction score in 2025 and offers a positive return on your investment. In just four days, your employees have access to:

- Over 100 educational sessions spanning a number of practice settings.
- The Expo providing resources to benefit clients, patients and your business.
- Access to research and practical information that can be shared with other colleagues.

All education at FNCE[®] is designed for real-world application, enabling your staff to quickly integrate new insights into their work. Your staff will return from FNCE[®] energized and motivated, ready to apply their new knowledge and skills to drive your organization forward.
