What is it?
A systematic process to identify a preferred future that is evidence-based and transparent.

Internally
Process is internally focused on identifying the profession's future needs that will evolve the practice of nutrition and dietetics.

Externally
Process is externally focused on identifying society's future needs.

Year 1
Investigation

Year 2
Member Engagement
Survey Release
November 12, 2015

Year 3
Visioning Report Publication

The Council has reviewed approximately 260 journal articles, government and organization reports, and newspaper or other print media articles in year 1 of the process.

The Council was established by the House of Delegates.

The Council includes representation from ACEND, CDR and NDEP, plus practitioners.